ORDER GRANTING APPLICATION TO PROCEED IN FORMA PAUPERIS

Plaintiff Kathryn Copeland, proceeding pro se, filed an application to proceed in forma pauperis (“IFP”) in this civil action, which was referred to the undersigned for judicial screening pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) and Special Order 3. After reviewing the pleadings and applicable legal authorities, the Court ORDERS the following:

1. Plaintiff’s application to proceed IFP is GRANTED. ECF No. 5. Plaintiff may proceed in this action without paying the $405 filing and administrative fees. However, the Court CAUTIONS Plaintiff that it may revoke her IFP status at any time if it determines that she has the financial resources to pay the $405 filing and administrative fees for this action or that she made false statements regarding her ability to do so in his pleadings. See Bass v. Parkwood Hosp., 180 F.3d 234, 239 (5th Cir. 1999). Additionally, the Court may also impose appropriate sanctions against Plaintiff if it determines that she made any misrepresentations to the Court. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(a)-(c).
2. Service of process shall be withheld pending judicial screening under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2).

3. No amendments or supplements to the complaint shall be filed without prior Court approval or order. A complete amended complaint shall be attached to any motion to amend.
4. All discovery in this case is stayed until further order of the Court.
5. At any time during this proceeding, Defendants may file a motion opposing Plaintiff's continued IFP status.
6. Plaintiff shall notify the Court of any change of address by filing a written notice with the clerk of Court. Failure to file such notice may result in this case being dismissed for want of prosecution. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b).

It is so ORDERED on May 14, 2026.
