CERTIFICATE OF CONFERENCE

Pursuant to N.D. Tex. Local Civil Rule 7.1(b)(3), Plaintiff Kathryn Copeland respectfully certifies the following with respect to her good-faith conferral efforts before and contemporaneously with the filing of her Emergency Application for Narrow Temporary Restraining Order (ECF No. 3):

1. Pre-Suit Demand Letter (May 10, 2026).

On May 10, 2026, at approximately 9:14 p.m. CDT, Plaintiff served by email upon Defendants and their counsel of record a formal pre-suit federal civil-rights demand letter (the "Demand Letter," filed as Exhibit 28 to the Verified Complaint).

The Demand Letter set a deadline of 9:00 a.m. CDT, Monday, May 11, 2026, for Defendants to confirm receipt, identify counsel for federal proceedings, and confer in good faith on a structural-relief framework. The 9:00 a.m. CDT, May 11, 2026 deadline expired without any Defendant proposing a structural-relief framework, confirming receipt, or otherwise responding on the merits. Instead, on May 11, 2026, Defendants filed in the 141st Judicial District Court of Tarrant County, Cause No. 141-370402-25, a 144-page Combined Motion for Summary Judgment directed at the same disability- and accommodation-related conduct at issue here. (See ECF No. 4, Supplemental Declaration ¶¶ 2–3.)

2. Notice of Federal Filing (May 13, 2026).

Contemporaneously with the filing of the Verified Complaint and Emergency Application, on May 13, 2026, Plaintiff served on all Defendants and their counsel of record by email a Notice of Federal Filing identifying the case number (4:26-cv-585-O-BP), the assignment to the Honorable Reed O'Connor as a related case to Copeland v. Tarrant County, 4:25-cv-890-O, and the requested ruling deadline of 5:00 p.m. CDT, May 13, 2026. Service was made on each of the persons and email addresses identified in the Certificate of Service to this filing.

3. Inability to Confer Within Emergency Window.

Despite the foregoing pre-suit demand and contemporaneous Notice, as of the date and time of filing this Certificate, no Defendant has (a) responded to Plaintiff's May 10, 2026 Demand Letter on the merits, (b) confirmed receipt of the Demand Letter or the Notice of Federal Filing, (c) identified federal counsel of record in this action, or (d) proposed any voluntary cessation or structural-relief framework consistent with the demand. The 60-hour window between the filing of this Application and the 5:00 p.m. CDT, May 15, 2026 submission deadline in Copeland v. Decker, Cause No. 236-363132-25, 236th JDC Tarrant County — which is the structural deadline that drives the requested ruling-by-5:00 p.m. May 13 — has rendered further pre-filing conference impracticable.

4. Plaintiff's Continuing Willingness to Confer.

Plaintiff remains willing to confer with Defendants at any time, including concurrent with the federal proceedings. Plaintiff's contact information has been provided to all Defendants and their counsel through the pre-suit Demand Letter, the Notice of Federal Filing, and the publicly listed signature blocks in each of Plaintiff's filings in this action. Plaintiff presumes the Application is OPPOSED.

Respectfully Submitted,
