AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

Subject to and without waiving the foregoing, Weinstein Defendants assert the following affirmative defenses, if such be necessary:

1. Plaintiff’s Original Complaint fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

2. Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, because Weinstein Defendants acted in compliance with all applicable rules, laws, and government regulations.

3. As an additional defense, and without waiving any other defense, Weinstein Defendants assert that the incidents/damages complained of by Plaintiff were caused in whole or in part by the negligence, carelessness and/or intentional acts and omissions of Plaintiff and/or other parties over whom Weinstein Defendants have no control, and that said negligence, carelessness and/or intentional acts and omissions were the sole cause, or alternatively, a proximate cause, or alternatively a superseding and/or intervening cause of the occurrences in question and/or the damages complained of by Plaintiff.

4. As an additional defense, and without waiving any other defense, Weinstein Defendants plead that Plaintiff's claims are barred, in whole or in part, by waiver, ratification, estoppel, and/or equitable estoppel.

5. As an additional defense, and without waiving any other defense, Weinstein Defendants are not liable to Plaintiff because Plaintiff did not mitigate damages.

6. Weinstein Defendants are entitled to a credit and offset of their liability for Plaintiff's alleged damages by any and all amounts Plaintiff recovers or may recover from any other person and/or entity.

7. Weinstein Defendants reserve the right to assert additional affirmative defenses as this lawsuit continues.

By asserting these affirmative defenses, Weinstein Defendants do not concede or intend to assume the burden of proof with respect to those matters which, pursuant to law, Plaintiff bears the burden.

CONCLUSION

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Defendants Weinstein Management Co., Inc., WMCi Dallas X, LLC, Lile Benaicha, and Allison Weinstein request that Plaintiff Kathryn Copeland take nothing through her claims asserted, the Original Complaint filed by Plaintiff Kathryn Copeland be dismissed in its entirety, and that Weinstein Defendants be granted such other and further relief to which Weinstein Defendants may be justly entitled to in law or in equity as the Court may deem just and proper.
