Mr. Douglas,

I've reviewed the court's docket and see that the court a) struck your motion to withdraw and b) requires all pleadings to be under your signature. Under those circumstances, I am not comfortable communicating with your client directly and will not do so.

From what I can gather, Mr. Copeland wants accommodations in state district court. Tarrant County has no authority or control over state district judges, so there is nothing I can do concerning her issues in the 236th or 141st courts.

As to the JP matters, the judge is the decisionmaker on accommodation requests. I suggest your client contact each judge's court manager in writing to request potential accommodations.

I've been preparing for a trial while simultaneously drafting an appellate brief. So, I have been and will likely continue to be slower to respond to things than is my normal practice.

Hi Steve,

John passed along your message to me. He is fairly swamped at the moment, but we are working in a co-counsel capacity on this matter.

I wanted to see whether you might be available to speak tomorrow. There are several ongoing ADA Title II compliance issues involving Tarrant County courts, with imminent and continuing harm anticipated in upcoming proceedings—specifically hearings scheduled for Wednesday the 14th (JP3), Thursday the 15th (the 236th and 141st), and next Thursday the 22nd (JP5).

My goal is to work constructively with the County to identify and implement solutions to these issues before they escalate further. I believe there is an opportunity here for proactive correction, and I would welcome the chance to discuss that path—particularly in light of how similar issues have unfolded elsewhere when left unaddressed.

Thank you, and I look forward to hearing from you.

Best regards,

Katie Copeland

Mr. Douglas,

I was on vacation when you sent this. Do you have time on Monday to talk about it?

Counsel,

I represent Plaintiff Kathryn Copeland in Copeland v. Tarrant County, et al., Civil Action No. 4:25-CV-00890-O, pending in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Texas.

The Court has directed Plaintiff's counsel to provide meaningful notice to Defendants and to confer regarding Plaintiff's request for emergency, process-based ADA accommodations. See ECF Nos. 25 and 28.

Although Defendants have not yet appeared and service via the U.S. Marshal is pending, Plaintiff previously provided notice of the lawsuit, the Emergency Motion for Temporary Restraining Order and Preliminary Injunction, and a Request for Waiver of Service on December 19, 2025 (see ECF No. 19). No response has been received to date.

Plaintiff has state-court proceedings scheduled for January 6, January 14, and January 15, 2026, and seeks only process-based ADA accommodations necessary for meaningful access to those proceedings (e.g., remote participation, written submissions, and reasonable extensions where required).

To comply with the Court's order and avoid unnecessary motion practice, Plaintiff requests to confer promptly regarding whether Defendants:

1. Intend to voluntarily provide or facilitate reasonable ADA accommodations; or
2. Intend to oppose such accommodations, in which case the parties can advise the Court and, if appropriate, propose an expedited briefing schedule for the Court's consideration.

Please advise whether you represent any Defendant in this matter or can direct this notice to appropriate counsel. Plaintiff's counsel is available to confer promptly upon identification of counsel.

Respectfully,

John Allen Douglas
Counsel for Plaintiff Kathryn Copeland
